Key facts	Interdisciplinarity is a key concept at UFABC. It has been discussed since the second half of the last century, when a strong need for redeeming the integrity of knowledge led to this approach, which consists of combining efforts from a variety of disciplines to deal with any given problem. Founded in 2006, the University is one of the youngest Brazilian universities, and it was created to advance knowledge and innovation in its many fields of knowledge.
University Campuses	UFABC has two campi located in neighbor cities, 30 minutes apart from each other, the Campus of Santo Andre and the Campus of Sao Bernardo do Campo, and a bus service free of charge runs between both campus. For campus maps, please see our website .

ACADEMIC AND GENERAL INFORMATION
Programs	Undergraduate Programs Graduate Programs
Undergraduate Programs Grading System	A – Excellent B – Above average C – Fair D – Partially unsatisfying F – Fail O – Fail due to attendance (over 25% of absence)
Tuition and Fees	UFABC is a public university funded by the Federal Government of Brazil, free of any charges for all study levels.
Language Requirements	No specific proof of language test is required, but the Home Institution must issue a statement attesting the student has

	a good command of English, equivalent to B2. The same command of Portuguese language is also required if the student intends to enroll in Portuguese-taught courses, which are the majority offered.
Academic Calendar and Periods.	UFABC is divided in three terms per year: 1st term: February to April. 2nd term: mid-May to August. 3rd term: September to December. Please find here more information about study terms.
Course Catalogue	The courses catalogue usually updates 60 days before the start of the upcoming quarter. Students may have to submit their application based on the previous year's catalogue and it may not be possible to guarantee that all courses shown for the previous quarter will be running in their current quarter of study. Most courses are offered in Portuguese, and courses offered in English will be informed on the same catalogue. Access the previous catalogue courses offered at UFABC.
Accommodation	UFABC does not provide student housing, however we suggest some options for websites for search: a) "Morar UFABC" & "Repúblicas UFABC" (Facebook groups): https://www.facebook.com/groups/508526529199286/; https://www.facebook.com/groups/633597580013005/. b) Airbnb; c) Roomgo; d) Hostels: there are no certified hostels in Santo André or São Bernardo do Campo, but there are plenty in São Paulo close to subway stations, which makes it easy to reach Santo André by train. We suggest either one of two hostels that are part of Hostelling International. One of them is Praça da Árvore Hostel, close to Praça da Árvore subway station. You can make reservations on their website (in English). The other one is Pousada dos franceses, close to Avenida Paulista, and you can make reservations on their website (in English) and find more information about it.
Study Visa	The visa must be obtained BEFORE the student's entrance in Brazil at any Brazilian consulate. All the students must get a special type of visa called TEMPORARY VISA ITEM IV to be able to enter in Brazil. The Brazilian Consulate within your area of jurisdiction will require you to fill out a visa application form to obtain a student visa type IV. After you apply for your student visa and receive it, do not forget to bring your original and copy of the approved visa application form and your original birth certificate with you to Brazil. You will need it to register your visa at the Federal

	Police Department within 90 days of your arrival (be aware that this period starts to count from the date of your arrival in Brazil, and not the beginning classes date).
Cost of living	To apply for the visa, students will be required to provide proof of sufficient funds for their stay in Brazil. The Brazilian government does not request proof of a specific amount of money. The expected cost of living in the ABC region is between R$ 1.000,00 and R$ 2.000,00 per month, depending on the type of accommodation and life style.
